

Marquee Wedding (up to 150 guests)

You might choose to get married in our village church (St Michael and All Angels), Belmont Abbey or even Hereford Cathedral. Maybe you would prefer to have a civil partnership ceremony in our 'Library' (seats 60), with further guests joining you to celebrate later. Either way, Moccas Court is perfectly suited for the ensuing wedding reception.

Relax the night before in the tranquility of our Bridal Suite, confident that everything is ready for your special day. With scented candles creating the ambience, soak in a wonderfully deep bubble bath and then wrap yourself in a luxury bathrobe. Sleep in the most comfortable of beds.

In the morning you'll find the huge, light, bedroom ideal for getting ready for your wedding day.

Sweep down the cantilevered staircase, stop for a photograph. There's no opportunity like it..

After the ceremony you can celebrate with a glass of Champagne chosen from our wine list. The reception is held in the magnificent Music Room, Library and historic Round Room. Savour delicious canapés before wandering outside. Pause for our photographer to capture the moment on the garden terraced steps, with the river as a back drop. Enter the marquee to the applause of your guests. Sit down to a delicious three course wedding breakfast. Toast the future. Cut and share your wedding cake, before dancing the night away. The finale to your magical day could be a stunning firework display over the river.
